

Please, don't leave me (Kriššák)

Baby, please don't leave me baby, can't you see me baby, I really love you I'll be dead without you I'm waiting for a chance hope in your glance
baby, please don't leave me

All day long I'm crying trust me, I'm not lying trust me, I'm a mad man rotten sunken wreck, yeah my blood turns to lead can't you see I'm sad
baby, please don't leave me

Please, don't close this story the story of such loving of course I know you worry each one useless promise yes, I'm gonna change need a chance to gain

Must it be a sundown a nightfall after twilight the sun shall never shine again in our life everything seems grim one horrible dream
